WASHINGTON, D.C.— Today, Congressman Xavier Becerra (CA-31), Vice Chair of the House Democratic Caucus, released the following statement on Constitution Day and Citizenship Day:

“As we remember the founding of our democracy, we also celebrate its renewal. Across our country this week we welcome thousands of new citizens and continue our proud history of giving immigrants of all backgrounds the opportunity to pursue happiness and participate fully in America. And we recognize that we must all do our part to keep the promise of America alive for future generations by exercising and strengthening our rights and responsibilities as U.S. citizens.”
