Rep. Becerra discusses the need for a public option to encourage health insurance providers to cover all Americans at an affordable price during a hearing of the House Democratic Steering & Policy Committee on health care reform.