Representative Xavier Becerra talked about Social Security and its impact on the budget deficit and national debt. He showed a Congressional Budget Office chart on the primary contributors to recent and projected budget deficits, and he discussed the status of talks between members of Congress and President Obama on raising the debt ceiling. He also responded to telephone calls and electronic communications.