Los Angeles: What does your community look like?

What is the Congressional Student Art Competition?

Since 1993, Congressman Xavier Becerra has held an annual Student Art Competition open to all high school students who reside in the 34th Congressional District. Each spring, a nation-wide high school arts competition is sponsored by the Members of the U.S. House of Representatives. The Congressional Student Art Competition is an opportunity to recognize and encourage the artistic talent in the nation, as well as in each congressional district.

Eligible Contestants:

All high school students and 7th and 8th graders who attend a comprehensive middle or high school who reside in the 34th Congressional District are eligible to participate in the competition. If you do not know what district you live in, please visit www.House.Gov to find out.

Theme:

Los Angeles: What does your community look like?

Your artwork should reflect how you view your community.

Deadline for Entries:

All artwork is due on March 22, 2013 by 5:00 P.M. Late entries will not be accepted.

All artwork must have a signed "Student Release Form" securely attached. Please visit our website at www.Becerra.House.Gov to obtain a copy of the release.

Please read the second page for more detailed information.
