

A Memorial Day Message

Friday, 27 May 2011 13:15

This weekend we honor and thank our men and women in uniform who are fighting for our country around the world. This is also a time to remember the fallen and reflect on the ultimate sacrifice that they and their loved ones have made for our country.

Every day, our troops put their lives on the line, performing selfless and heroic actions, in the name of defending our country and our ideals. Back home, military families must endure each day knowing that their loved one is putting his or herself in harm's way. So, this weekend, take a moment not just to reflect on the sacrifices made by our troops and their families. Remember to thank them for their service.

So to all the troops, veterans and military families I would like to say thank you for all that you do.
