

Congressman Becerra giving his remarks on the critical need to pass legislation to extend the therapy cap exceptions process beyond 2007. He was joined by members of the American Physical Therapy Association.