

Recovery Act Projects in California's 31st Congressional District

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, signed into law by President Obama in 2009, has meant lower taxes for most residents of California's 31st Congressional District as well as more teachers, police and firefighters serving the community.

Through grants, the Recovery Act is putting your neighbors to work bettering the community--and the country. On the map bellow you will find a number of Recovery Act projects in CA-31. Zoom in and click on an icon to learn more about that project.

View Recovery Act Investments in CA-31 in a larger map

NOTE: This map does not include all federal funds that have been used to keep teachers, police, firefighters and other public servants on the job. The map is updated on a periodic basis, but may not be completely up-to-date.